辩论类大作文结尾举例-1

- ◎ Space travel to the moon is considered as “a step of mankind.” But some people think that space travel has made little difference on people’ s lives today. To what extent do you agree or disagree?

辩论类大作文结尾举例-1

- ◎ It seems obvious that space travel is of considerable significance to the improvement of individuals' daily life. But I still suggest that developing countries should take their economic condition into to consideration first when they plan to conduct such a money-consuming project.
