Photography

Do you love taking pictures or taking pictures of you? Why.

I prefer taking pictures because it is a good way to capture the amazing moments and record the unforgettable experiences. As to why I am not a big fan of taking pictures of me, I am not photogenic. You know, camera doesn't love me.

Do you love drawing?

Absolutely, it is a good way to relieve my pressure and cultivate my temperament. I can express my thoughts and show my inner world to others. When I draw, I become more imaginative and creative.

What influence do you think drawing has on the youngsters and the elderly people?

To elderly people, painting is a great way to kill time, release their stress and cultivate their temperament.

To youngsters, painting is a great way to develop their imagination, creativity and cultivate their aesthetical judgment.

Why do parents always want their kids to learn how to draw?

Well, I guess it is a very common phenomenon in China. One thing no one can deny is that all the parents want their kids to stand out among peers, so they think it is their job to find out what their kids' potentials and interests are.

What is the importance of art?

Art is super important. Generally speaking, it can spice up people's lives; cultivate their temperament and aesthetic judgment. I think art is all about sending messages; it is about "infection"; by which I mean, a good work of art can create a specific emotional link between the artist and the audience. It can "affect" the viewer.

Dance

Do you love dancing?

Absolutely, I have a huge fascination for it. It is fun, it is relaxing and it gives me a way to express myself. It helps me to be more open minded and confident. And it helps me to stay fit.

What kind of dance do young guys love?

Dancing evolves many styles: ballet, and ballroom. What young guys love are break dance, locking, popping and free style, which are normally associated with hip hop. It has already become a trend or a culture.

What meanings does dance have to people?

Dancing enables people to enrich their lives, release their stress and express their emotions.

谢谢
